Our centenary is more than just a number. It's a rare and remarkable achievement — a testament to the millions of guests we've welcomed, the passionate people who've shaped our story, and the spirit of innovation that has driven us since day one.

As we step into our second century, we're investing in what lies ahead: building new ships, unveiling extraordinary experiences, enhancing our Wilderness Lodge network and continuing to deliver what has defined APT for 100 years — impeccable service, awe-inspiring journeys, and every detail curated to the finest touch.

Airfares

Air travel is arranged with independent airlines. APT will arrange air travel as advertised in connection with your holiday package. Once air tickets are issued, amendment and cancellation fees and conditions apply and, in some cases, are non-refundable.

Additional cancellation fees may also be charged in respect of accommodation reserved outside the holiday package dates. These cancellation fees are in addition to any fees that may be levied by APT and your travel agent (if any). You acknowledge that the amounts estimated under the Cancellation Policy are reasonable and represent a genuine pre-estimate of APT's loss and are otherwise reasonably necessary to protect the legitimate interests of APT. If you request changes after APT has issued your documents, APT may charge you an administration and processing fee of $70 per person in addition to any applicable cancellation fees.

Please see our full Terms and Conditions for full details of APT cancellation fees, and details of fees relating to cancellation of or changes to ticketed airfares.

Disruption to Arrangements

Itineraries are intended as a guide only and are subject to alteration without notice. Alterations may be necessary for various reasons, including reasons beyond APT's control. APT will not be liable for any direct or indirect costs that you incur as a result of any event or other factor beyond our control which necessitates a change in your itinerary.

Limitation of Liability

Our holiday packages include the services of independent providers, such as hoteliers, airlines, cruise companies and other operators, who are not agents or employees of APT. APT is not responsible for the conduct of the independent providers or their agents or for any ramifications of that conduct. APT accepts no responsibility for any death, injury, illness, loss, damage, detention, or delay beyond its control. Any term, condition or warranty expressed or implied by statute or otherwise in respect of the holiday packages contained in any of our collateral are excluded to the full extent permitted by law. Nothing in our terms and conditions excludes, restricts or modifies the application of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) as amended. To the full extent permitted by law, APT's liability arising under or in connection with these booking conditions:

(a) is limited to the re-supply of the products or services or the payment of the cost of re-supply of the products or services to you; and (b) excludes liability for any indirect or consequential losses suffered by you or any third party, howsoever caused.

Force Majeure

Termination of Booking Contract or Change of Travel Arrangements Due to Force Majeure

If APT, in its reasonable opinion, considers that any Force Majeure event prevents APT (directly, or through its employees, contractors, subcontractors and agents) from lawfully or safely providing any products or services subject of the booking contract with you, APT may immediately by written notice: (a) terminate the booking contract (in whole or in part); or (b) change your travel arrangements as reasonably practicable to ensure your safety and invoice you for any additional costs.

Limitation of Liability in the Case of Force Majeure
